On behalf of the instructors and staff of the Connecticut Fire Academy, I am pleased to present the 2022 Summer Symposium. "June School" has a long and proud history in the CT Fire Service educating fire service members at all levels. In the past few years the attendance has been impacted by many variables including the COVID 19 Pandemic. As the new Director, I have committed to breathing new life into this valued program.

In the spring of 2022 we surveyed the CT Fire Service and are building an all-new program based on the feedback we received. As a result of the survey, we will be offering a three-day symposium that will include classroom and hands on sessions. We have worked with our instructor cadre to build new classes and improve classes previously delivered. We are excited to unveil our all new program, Modern Fire Dynamics class that is directly derived from the UL-FSRI Fire Dynamics Boot Camp.

We are excited to bring you high fidelity, fast paced classes that you have asked for including live fire options at both the CT Fire Academy and Fairfield Regional Fire School campuses.

In addition, we are building an exhibit area and inviting vendors from across New England and beyond to join us to showcase their fire and EMS products that support you each and every day.

Please accept this as a personal invitation to attend the 2022 CT Fire Academy Summer Symposium. Regardless if you are a vendor, firefighter, officer or Chief Officer we will have something for you.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to call me at 1-860-264-9272.

Respectfully,

Paul J. Norwood

P.J. Norwood,
Director of Training

IT'S OK TO NOT BE OK - AND OTHER THINGS YOU WON'T HEAR IN A FIREHOUSE

Class Description: This discussion will provide you with insight into a CT Firefighter's resiliency and his recovery from two extreme personal events.

Mike Mace proudly served in the East Hartford Fire Department for 25 years, retiring in 2020 as the Assistant Medical Officer. At the age of 21 he was involved in a prison riot, narrowly escaping with his life. The second major incident happened some 30 years later when he survived a widow maker heart attack (approx. 10 percent survival rate) that effectively ended his career. Having this "resume" has provided him with a unique perspective when it comes to resiliency and the actual mental recovery from such extreme events.

In this discussion Mike will talk about the incidents and the different ways of dealing with them. He will also discuss the benefits, processes and challenges with starting a peer support team. The class will provide some quality resources to assist you. The discussion will finish with the challenges you may face with retirement/ separation from service and the various organizations available to assist you with this process.

Mental health was not discussed in emergency services for many years. The mantra was: KEEP IT TO YOURSELF. Today, the emergency services of 2022 are very different but we still have a lot of work to do. If Mike can help one person or group with his story, then it was all worth it.
